Freedom of Expression Policy

The Puerto Rico School of Nurse Anesthetists is committed to foster an environment where free expression is encouraged. PRSNA expects that persons engaging in expressive activities will demonstrate civility, concern for the safety of persons and property, and respect for all the educational and recreative activities held at PRSNA. Also, it is expected respect for those who may disagree with their message, and compliance with PRSNA policies and applicable local, state, and federal laws.

PRSNA maintains its right to place reasonable time, place, and manner restrictions on expressive activities. Additionally, any activities that are unlawful or disruptive to the normal operations of PRSNA, including classes, will not be tolerated.

The purpose of this Freedom of Expression Policy is to provide for organized expressive activities to be conducted on the grounds of PRSNA in a manner consistent with these principles. Groups or individuals engaging in disruptive activities or failing to comply with PRSNA's policies and applicable local, state, and federal laws may face immediate removal from the institution and other appropriate actions by the police.

The Freedom of Expression Policy is applicable to all students, faculty and staff of PRSNA, who wish to engage in extracurricular, organized expressive activities, including public speaking, literature distribution, poster displays, and sign displays, any other type of graphic exhibitions, expressive performances, petitioning, or similar noncommercial activities at locations on PRSNA property. This policy does not apply to official PRSNA activities. PRSNA buildings are reserved for use by students, faculty, and staff of PRSNA. Expressive activities permitted under this policy do not imply official endorsement by PRSNA. Groups or individuals engaged in expressive activities are responsible for the content of the expression.
